4. MATTERS REGARDING THE RESTRICTION OF REDUCING SHARES

(1) Restrictions on the circulation of shares and undertakings by shareholders to voluntarily lock-up their shares

The Company's controlling shareholder, China Telecommunications, undertakes that:

Within 36 months from the date on which the A Shares of the Company are listed and traded on the SSE, it shall not transfer or entrust others to manage the shares held by China Telecommunications prior to the initial public offering of A Shares of the Company, nor shall the Company repurchase such shares. China Telecommunications undertakes to strictly comply with the Company Law, the Securities Law, the SSE Listing Rules and other laws and regulations, policy requirements and the relevant requirements of the CSRC for prudent supervision, and to determine the lock-up period by adopting a longer applicable period; In the event of future changes in the above laws and regulations and policies, China Telecommunications undertakes to determine the lock-up period in strict accordance with the requirements after the changes. If the shares held by China Telecommunications are reduced within two years after the expiration of the above-mentioned shareholding period, the price of such reduction shall not be lower than the issue price of the Company's initial public offering of A Shares; if the closing price of the Company's shares is lower than the issue price for 20 consecutive trading days within 6 months after the listing of the Company, or the closing price at the end of 6 months after the listing of the Company (if such date is not a trading day, the first trading day thereafter) is lower than the issue price, the shareholding period of China Telecommunications shall be automatically extended for at least 6 months.

Each of Guangdong Rising, Zhejiang Financial Development, Fujian Investment Group and Jiangsu Guoxin, being the shareholders of the Company, undertakes that:

Within 12 months from the date on which the A Shares of the Company are listed and traded on a stock exchange, it shall not transfer or entrust others to manage the shares it held before the initial public offering of A Shares of the Company, nor shall the Company repurchase such shares; The lock-up period will be determined in strict compliance with the Company Law, the Securities Law, the SSE Listing Rules and other laws, regulations and policies as well as the relevant requirements of the CSRC for prudent supervision, and to determine the lock-up period by adopting a longer applicable period; In the event of future changes in the above laws and regulations and policies, the lock-up period will be determined in strict accordance with the requirements after the changes; In the event of failure to perform the above undertakings, it shall take the relevant liabilities in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations, regulatory documents and the provisions of the stock exchange's business rules and the requirements of the regulatory authorities.

(2) Undertaking on the intention of shareholding and the intention of shareholding reduction by shareholders holding more than 5% of the shares before the initial public offering of A shares

Each of China Telecommunications, being the controlling shareholder of the Company, and Guangdong Rising, the shareholder holding more than 5% of the shares of the Company, undertakes that:

1. After the initial public offering and listing of A Shares of the Company, it will strictly comply with its undertakings on the lock-up period of its shares. After the expiration of the committed lock-up period, in compliance with the relevant laws and regulations, regulatory documents and the business rules of the stock exchange, it will determine whether to reduce its shareholding in the Company based on factors such as the overall conditions of the securities market, the Company's operating results and stock trends, and its business development needs.
2. After the initial public offering and listing of A Shares of the Company and the expiration of the committed lock-up period, if it decides to reduce its shareholding in the Company, it will be processed through the block trading system of the stock exchange, the centralised bidding trading system or by agreement as permitted by laws and regulations.
3. If it intends to reduce its shareholding, it shall notify the Company in writing in advance on the information such as the number of shares to be reduced and the reasons for such reduction, and the Company shall perform the information disclosure obligations in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations and regulatory rules. It may implement the reduction after three trading days from the date on which the Company discloses its intention to reduce its shareholding.
4. Reduction of shareholding in the Company will be implemented in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations, the Several Provisions on Reduction of Shareholding by Shareholders, Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management of Listed Companies and the Implementation Rules for Reduction of Shareholding by Shareholders, Directors, Supervisors and Senior Management of Listed Companies of the Shanghai Stock Exchange. If there are changes in the relevant laws and regulations, regulatory documents and the business rules of the stock exchange, the then effective provisions shall prevail.
5. Reduction of shares of the Company acquired through the secondary market after the initial public offering and listing of A Shares of the Company shall not be subject to the above undertakings.

In the event of failure to perform the above undertakings, it shall take the relevant liabilities in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations, regulatory documents, business rules of stock exchanges and requirements of regulatory authorities.
