1. According to a waiver letter issued by The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited on 18 May 2004, the Company is not required to set an annual monetary cap for the total amount under interconnection agreements.

On 13 April 2004, the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation, its substantial shareholder, entered into a supplemental agreement relating to centralised services agreement, interconnection agreement and a comprehensive services framework agreement.

Centralised Services Agreement

The Centralised Services Agreement was renewed on 30 December 2004 and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. The aggregate costs incurred by the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation for the provision of management services relating to the operation of the business support centre and the network management centre, the costs of headquarters and certain network support premises and related facilities (including labor costs, depreciation of equipment and premises, daily expenses, costs relating to maintenance and research) and certain large corporate customers of the headquarters of China Telecommunications Corporation, will be apportioned on a pro rata basis between the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation according to the revenues generated by each party. In relation to the use of the international telecommunications facilities, the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation have agreed to apportion the costs associated with operating such assets on a pro rata basis according to the aggregate volume of the inbound international calls terminated by, and outbound international calls originated from, the Company and China Telecom Group, respectively.

Interconnection Agreement

Pursuant to the Interconnection Agreement, the telephone operator terminating a telephone call made to its local access network shall be entitled to receive from the operator from which the telephone call originated a fee prescribed by the MII from time to time, which is currently RMB0.06 per minute.

Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement

The Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement was renewed on 30 December 2004, and can be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. This agreement governs the terms and conditions of transactions between them on two levels: (i) between the Group and certain associates held by China Telecommunications Corporation as long-term investments; and (ii) between the Group and certain subsidiaries of China Telecommunications Corporation operating in other provinces (the "Provincial Subsisting Companies"). Such transactions include procurement of telecommunications equipment such as optic fibre, network designs, software upgrade, system integration, manufacture of calling cards and so on. Prices under such agreement should be determined in accordance with the government-prescribed prices. In the absence of the government-prescribed prices, the government-guided prices (if any) shall apply. In the absence of both government-prescribed prices and government-guided prices, the market prices shall apply, i.e. the prices at which the same type of services are provided by independent third party in the ordinary course of business. If none of such prices is applicable, the prices shall be determined through agreements between the parties based on reasonable costs plus reasonable profits. For this purpose, "reasonable costs" shall mean the costs determined by the parties after negotiations.

As at 13 April 2004, the following agreements or supplemental agreements thereto were entered into by each of Shanghai Telecom Company Limited, Guangdong Telecom Company Limited, Jiangsu Telecom Company Limited, Zhejiang Telecom Company Limited, Anhui Telecom Company Limited, Fujian Telecom Company Limited, Jiangxi Telecom Company Limited, Guangxi Telecom Company Limited, Chongqing Telecom Company Limited, Sichuan Telecom Company Limited, Hubei Telecom Company Limited, Hunan Telecom Company Limited, Hainan Telecom Company Limited, Guizhou Telecom Company Limited, Yunnan Telecom Company Limited, Shaanxi Telecom Company Limited, Gansu Telecom Company Limited, Qinghai Telecom Company Limited, Ningxia Telecom Company Limited, Xinjiang Telecom Company Limited under the Company (the "Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies") and the Provincial Subsisting Companies in their respective service area.

Engineering Framework Agreements

The Engineering Framework Agreements will expire on 31 December 2006, and may be renewed for further periods of three years upon expiration. These agreements set out provisions in respect of the supervision and management of services relating to construction, design, and equipment installation and tests provided to the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies by the Provincial Subsisting Companies through bidding, and/or services as the general contractors for the construction and supervision of engineering projects of the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies. The charges payable for such engineering services shall be determined by reference to market rates as reflected by prices obtained through tender process.

Property Leasing Framework Agreements

The Property Leasing Framework Agreements were renewed on 30 December 2004 and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies under the Company lease properties from the Provincial Subsisting Companies for use as business premises, offices, equipment storage facilities and sites for network equipment. On the other hand, the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies also lease certain properties to the Provincial Subsisting Companies. The rent shall be determined based on the market price with reference to the standard set forth by local pricing authorities.

Property Sub-Leasing Framework Agreements

The Property Sub-Leasing Framework Agreements were renewed on 30 December 2004 and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Provincial Subsisting Companies sublease certain properties owned and leased by independent third parties to the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies under the Group for use as offices, retail outlets, spare parts storage facilities and sites for network equipment. The rent for sub-leasing of third party property shall be determined based on the market price as agreed between the relevant Provincial Subsisting Company and relevant third party through arm's length negotiation.

IT Services Framework Agreements

The IT Services Framework Agreements were renewed on 30 December 2004 and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Provincial Subsisting Companies may participate in the bidding for the right to provide the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies with certain information technology services, such as office automation and software upgrade. The charges payable for such IT services shall be determined by reference to market rates or as determined by prices obtained through the tender process.

Equipment Procurement Services Framework Agreements

The Equipment Procurement Services Framework Agreements were renewed on 30 December 2004 and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Provincial Subsisting Companies have agreed to provide comprehensive procurement services, including management of tenders, verification of technical specifications and installation services. The maximum commission for such procurement services shall be calculated based on the following: (1) not more than 1% of the contract value for procurement of imported telecommunications equipment; or (2) not more than 3% of the contract value for the procurement of domestic telecommunications equipment and other domestic non-telecommunications materials.

Community Services Framework Agreements

The Community Services Framework Agreements will expire on 31 December 2006, and may be renewed for further periods of three years upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Provincial Subsisting Companies will provide the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies with services relating to culture, education, property management, vehicle service, medical care, hotel and conference service, community and sanitary service. The pricing terms for such services are the same as those for comprehensive services.

Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreements

The Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreements will expire on 31 December 2006, and may be renewed for further periods of three years upon expiration. Pursuant to such agreements, the Provincial Subsisting Companies agree to provide the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies with certain repair and maintenance services, including maintenance of telecommunications equipment, fire equipment and telephone booths, as well as other customer services. The pricing terms for such services are the same as those for comprehensive services.

The independent non-executive directors have confirmed that all continuing connected transactions for the year ended 31 December 2004 to which the Group was a party:

1. had been entered into, and the agreements governing those transactions were entered into, by the Group in the ordinary and usual course of business;
2. had been entered into either:
 - (i) on normal commercial terms; or
 - (ii) where there was no available comparison to judge whether they are on normal commercial terms, on terms no less favourable than those available to or from independent third parties; and
3. had been entered into on terms that are fair and reasonable so far as the overall interests of the independent shareholders of the Company are concerned.

The independent non-executive directors have further confirmed that:

the values of continuing connected transactions entered into between the Group and its connected persons which are subject to annual caps have not exceeded their respective annual caps.

The auditors of the Group have reviewed the continuing connected transactions of the Group (not including transactions entered into by the Acquired Companies and the Company's connected persons prior to 30 June 2004) and have confirmed to the Directors that the transactions:

1. have received the approval of the Directors of the Company;
2. have been entered into in accordance with the pricing policies as stated in the relevant agreements;
3. have been entered into in accordance with the terms of the agreements governing such transactions; and the values of continuing connected transactions entered into between the Group and connected persons of the Group which are subject to annual caps have not exceeded their respective annual cap.
