

Report of the Directors

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of China Telecom Corporation Limited (the "Company") is pleased to present its report together with the audited financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries (the "Group") prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards for the year ended 31 December 2006.

PRINCIPAL BUSINESSES

The principal businesses of the Group are: provision of comprehensive wireline telecommunications and other relevant services, including local telephone, domestic long distance telephone, international long distance telephone, Internet and managed data, leased line and other related services to its subscribers within the service area of the Group. The principal business of the Company is investment holding.

RESULTS

Results of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2006 and the financial position of the Company and the Group as at that date are set out in the audited financial statements on pages 85 to 139 in this annual report.

DIVIDEND

The Board proposes to declare a final dividend in the amount equivalent to HK$0.085 per share, totaling approximately RMB6,820 million for the year ended 31 December 2006. The dividend proposal will be submitted for consideration at the Annual General Meeting to be held on 29 May 2007. Dividends will be denominated and declared in Renminbi. Dividends on domestic shares will be paid in Renminbi. Dividends on H shares will be paid in Hong Kong dollars. The relevant exchange rate will be the mean of the average offer rate of Renminbi to Hong Kong dollars as announced by the People's Bank of China for the week prior to the date of declaration of dividends at the Annual General Meeting. The final dividends are expected to be paid around 15 June 2007 after its approval at the Annual General Meeting.

ISSUE OF SHORT TERM COMMERCIAL PAPER BY THE COMPANY

On 10 April 2006, the Company successfully issued a short term commercial paper in the nominal amount of RMB20 billion, due in one year with an annual interest rate of 3.05%. The short term commercial paper was issued through a book-building and centralised placing process in the PRC inter-bank debenture market on a nominal value basis. All the proceeds from this issue of the short term commercial paper were used to satisfy the Company's funding needs of production and operations. The Company considers that the issue of the short term commercial paper will enable it to reduce its finance costs, to improve its capital-raising structure and to enhance its market image.

Report of the Directors

Centralised Services Agreement

Centralised services includes the provision of management and operational services by the Company to China Telecommunications Corporation in relation to big corporate customers, its network management centre and business support centre, and also the provision of certain premises by the China Telecommunications Corporation to the Group. In addition, centralised services also includes the common use of international telecommunications facilities between both parties. The Centralised Services Agreement was renewed on 30 August 2006 with expiration on 31 December 2007, and may be automatically renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration without limit in the number of renewals, unless the Company provides a notice of non-renewal in writing to the China Telecommunications Corporation three months prior to the end of the relevant term. The aggregate costs incurred by the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation for the provision of management and operation services relating to big corporate customers, as well as the business support centre and the network management centre, and by any of the parties in this agreement for the provision of premises (including labour costs, depreciation of equipment and premises, daily expenses, costs relating to maintenance and research) will be apportioned between the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation on a pro rata basis according to the revenues generated by each party. The costs will be apportioned over a period of one year. In relation to the common use of international telecommunications facilities, the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation have agreed to apportion the costs associated with operating such assets on a pro rata basis according to the aggregate volume of the inbound international calls terminated by, and outbound international calls originating from, the Company and China Telecom Group, respectively.

Interconnection Settlement Agreement

Pursuant to the Interconnection Settlement Agreement, the telephone operator terminating a telephone call made to its local access network shall be entitled to receive from the operator from which the telephone call originated, a fee prescribed by the MII, which is currently RMB0.06 per minute.

As stated in the public announcement by the Company on 25 October 2006, the independent shareholders of the Company resolved and approved at the Extraordinary General Meeting the further renewal of the Interconnection Settlement Agreement on 30 August 2006 in accordance with its provisions. The Agreement was renewed for another two years and will expire on 31 December 2008 and will be automatically renewed for a period of three years upon expiration, unless the Company provides notice of non-renewal in writing to the China Telecommunications Corporation three months prior to the end of the relevant term.

Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement

The Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement governs the terms and conditions of transactions between the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation at two levels: (i) between the Group and certain associates held by China Telecommunications Corporation as long-term investments; and (ii) between the Group and certain subsidiaries of China Telecommunications Corporation operating in other provinces (the "Provincial Subsisting Companies"). Such transactions include procurement of the supply of telecommunications equipment (such as optic fibre), design, implementation and supervision of telecommunications (network) projects, software upgrade, system integration, manufacture of calling cards and so on. Prices under such agreement shall be determined in accordance with the government-prescribed prices. In the absence of government-prescribed prices, the government-guided prices (if any) shall apply. In the absence of both government-prescribed prices and government-guided prices, the market prices shall apply, that is, the prices at which the same types of services are provided by independent third party in the ordinary course of business. If none of the above prices is applicable, the prices shall be determined through negotiation between the two parties based on reasonable costs plus reasonable profit. In which "reasonable costs" shall mean the costs determined by the two parties after negotiations.

The Comprehensive Services Framework Agreement was renewed on 30 August 2006 and will expire on 31 December 2007, and will be automatically renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration without limit in the number of renewals, unless the Company provides notice of non-renewal in writing to the China Telecommunications Corporation three months prior to the expiration of the relevant term.

Listed Company — Parent Company Agreement

As stated in the circular by the Company on 8 September 2006, for the purpose of organising the structure of the Group's connected transactions and ease of internal management, the subsidiaries of the Company, and China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates agree to adjust the major entities in the connected transactions agreements. Pursuant to this, the Company and China Telecommunications Corporation signed a series of Listed Company — Parent Company Agreement on 30 August 2006 as the framework agreement for each of Shanghai Telecom Company Limited, Guangdong Telecom Company Limited, Jiangsu Telecom Company Limited, Zhejiang Telecom Company Limited, Anhui Telecom Company Limited, Fujian Telecom Company Limited, Jiangxi Telecom Company Limited, Guangxi Telecom Company Limited, Chongqing Telecom Company Limited, Sichuan Telecom Company Limited, Hubei Telecom Company Limited, Hunan Telecom Company Limited, Hainan Telecom Company Limited, Guizhou Telecom Company Limited, Yunnan Telecom Company Limited, Shaanxi Telecom Company Limited, Gansu Telecom Company Limited, Qinghai Telecom Company Limited, Ningxia Telecom Company Limited and Xinjiang Telecom Company Limited under the Company (the "Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies"), which governs the terms of continuing connected transactions under the following six agreements. Pursuant to the Listed Company — Parent Company Agreement, the Company represented the Group while the China Telecommunications Corporation represented its associates, and the parties signing the contracts will be changed from individual subsidiaries of the Company and of the China Telecommunications Corporation to the Company and the China

Telecommunications Corporation. The terms and conditions in the relevant connected transactions agreements remain unchanged:

- (1) Property Leasing Framework Agreements;
- (2) IT Services Framework Agreements;
- (3) Equipment Procurement Services Framework Agreements;
- (4) Engineering Framework Agreements;
- (5) Community Services Framework Agreements;
- and
- (6) Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreements.

The followings are the Listed Company — Parent Company Agreements:

Property Leasing Framework Agreement

Pursuant to the Property Leasing Framework Agreement, the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies under the Company lease properties from the Provincial Subsisting Companies for use as business premises, offices, equipment storage facilities and sites for network equipment. In addition, the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies also lease certain properties to the Provincial Subsisting Companies. The rent payable under the relevant leases shall be determined based on the market price with reference to the standards set forth by local pricing authorities.

The Property Leasing Framework Agreement will expire on 31 December 2007, and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration without limit in the number of renewals, unless the Company provides notice of non-renewal in writing to the China Telecommunications Corporation three months prior to the end of the the relevant term.

IT Services Framework Agreement

Pursuant to the IT Services Framework Agreement, the Provincial Subsisting Companies may participate in bids for the right to provide the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies with information technology services, such as office automation, software testing and network upgrade. The charges payable for such IT services shall be determined by reference to market rates or as determined by prices obtained through the tender process.

Report of the Directors

The IT Services Framework Agreement may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration on 31 December 2007, unless the Company provides notice of non-renewal in writing to the China Telecommunications Corporation three months prior to the expiry of the relevant term.

Equipment Procurement Services Framework Agreement

Pursuant to the Equipment Procurement Services Framework Agreement, the Provincial Subsisting Companies have agreed to provide comprehensive procurement services, including management of tenders, verification of technical specifications and installation services. The maximum commission for such procurement services shall be calculated based on the followings: (1) not more than 1% of the contract value for procurement of imported telecommunications equipment; or (2) not more than 3% of the contract value for the procurement of domestic telecommunications equipment and other domestic non-telecommunications materials.

The Equipment Procurement Services Framework Agreement will expire on 31 December 2007, and may be renewed for further periods of one year upon expiration without limit in the number of renewals, unless the Company provides notice of non-renewal in writing to the China Telecommunications Corporation three months prior to the end of the relevant term.

Engineering Framework Agreement

The Engineering Framework Agreement sets out the terms in respect of the supervision and management of services relating to construction, design, equipment installation and tests provided to the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies through bids made by the Provincial Subsisting Companies, and/or services as the general contractors for the construction and supervision of engineering projects of the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies. The charges payable for such engineering services shall be determined by reference to the market rates as reflected through the tender process. The charges payable for the design or supervision of engineering projects with a value over RMB500,000, or construction of engineering projects with a value over RMB2 million shall be determined by referring to the tender price.

As stated in the public announcement by the Company on 25 October 2006, the independent shareholders of the Company resolved and approved at the Extraordinary General Meeting that the Engineering Framework Agreement will expire on 31 December 2008, and may be renewed for periods of three years upon expiration without limit in the number renewals, unless the Company provides notice of non-renewal in writing to the China Telecommunications Corporation three months prior to the end of the relevant term.

Community Services Framework Agreement

Pursuant to the Community Services Framework Agreement, the Provincial Subsisting Companies will provide the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies with services relating to culture, education, property management, vehicle service, health and medical care, hotel and conference service, community and sanitary service. The pricing terms for such services are the same as those for comprehensive services.

The Community Services Framework Agreement will expire on 31 December 2007, and may be renewed for further periods of three years upon expiration without limit in the number of renewals, unless either party provides notice of non-renewal in writing to the opposite party three months prior to the end of the relevant term.

Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement

Pursuant to the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement, the Provincial Subsisting Companies agree to provide the Twenty Provincial Telecom Companies with certain repair and maintenance services, including repair of telecommunications equipment, maintenance of fire equipment and telephone booths, as well as other customer services. The pricing terms for such services are the same as those for comprehensive services.

The Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement will expire on 31 December 2007, and may be renewed for further periods of three years upon expiration without limit in the number of renewals, unless either party provides notice of non-renewal in writing to the opposite party three months prior to the end of the relevant term.

The independent non-executive directors of the Company have confirmed that all continuing connected transactions for the year ended 31 December 2006 to which the Group was a party:

1. had been entered into, and the agreements governing those transactions were entered into, by the Group in the ordinary and usual course of business;
2. had been entered into either:
 - (i) on normal commercial terms; or
 - (ii) where there was no available comparison to judge whether they are on normal commercial terms, on terms no less favourable than those available to or (if applicable) from independent third parties; and
3. had been entered into on terms that are fair and reasonable so far as the overall interests of the independent shareholders of the Company are concerned.

The independent non-executive directors have further confirmed that:

The values of continuing connected transactions entered into between the Group and its connected persons which are subject to annual caps have not exceeded their respective annual caps.

The international auditor of the Group have reviewed the continuing connected transactions of the Group and have confirmed to the Board that the transactions:

1. have received the approval of the Board;
2. have been entered into in accordance with the pricing policies as stated in the relevant agreements; and
3. have been entered into in accordance with the terms of the agreements governing such transactions; and the values of continuing connected transactions entered into between the Group and its connected persons which are subject to annual caps have not exceeded their respective annual caps.

Strategic Agreement

As stated in the public announcement by the Company on 25 October 2006, independent shareholders of the Company resolved and approved in the Extraordinary General Meeting, the signing of a Strategic Agreement between the Company and China Communications Services Corporation Limited, a fellow subsidiary of which China Telecommunications Corporation, our parent company, is the holding company, on 30 August 2006 with an effective period between 1 January 2007 and 31 December 2009. Both parties may negotiate the renewal of the Strategic Agreement upon the expiration, and the renewal is subject to the requirements of Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules (including disclosure and independent shareholders' approval requirements).

Pursuant to the Strategic Agreement, the business areas of the strategic alliance between the two parties governed by the terms and conditions in the agreement include: design, implementation and supervision of the communications engineering, maintenance management service, contents application service, sales channel service, usage of telecommunications and other new businesses arising from time to time which are appropriate for the collaboration between the two parties. China Communications Services Corporation Limited pledges its support to the strategic transformation of the Company from traditional basic telecommunications operator to comprehensive information service provider, its active support to the Company's business development, and its active use of the Company's products and services in its own business.

Such services shall comply with the related standards of China or the standards agreed by both parties, and shall be on terms no less favourable than those available to any third parties to which the same or similar services are provided by either party. Without breaching the requirements governed by PRC laws, in respect of the same services, where the terms and conditions of services provided by either party of the Strategic Agreement are the same as those provided by an independent third party, the party under the Strategic Agreement shall have the priority to be appointed as the service provider by the other party.

Report of the Directors

Other important terms of the Agreement are listed in detail in the circular on 8 September 2006.
